

Kumbrabow State Forest

KUMBRABOW STATE FOREST, is located along the western edge of the Allegheny Highlands atop Rich Mountain in Randolph County, West Virginia. The 9,474 acres of forest range from 3,000 to 3,930 feet above sea level, making Kumbrabow the state's highest forest. Acquired in 1934, the forest derives its unusual name from three prominent families instrumental in the land purchase, KUMp-BRADy-BOWers.

RESERVATIONS

Cabin Reservations

Cabins at Kumbrabow State Forest are open seasonally. During summer months cabins are reserved for a minimum of one week from the second Monday in June through mid-August. Weekly rentals run from Monday, check-in through the following Monday, check-out. Kumbrabow also offers rental options of less than seven nights during this time period, which includes three and four night stays. Reservations may be made up to a year in advance (from the first day in the month) and are recommended at all times.

Reservations may be made by calling Kumbrabow directly or by dialing 1-800-CALL WVA and asking for Kumbrabow State Forest. This toll-free line may be used anywhere in the continental United States or any Canadian province in the Eastern time zone.

Payment Methods — Cabins

Personal checks, money orders, cash and major credit cards (VISA, MasterCard, American Express, Discover and Diners Club) are accepted for payments. Reservations made by phone and using personal checks for payment will be held for 10 days to allow time to remit the required deposit. Reservations made less than 10 days prior to the arrival date, as available, are accommodated and a method of guarantee provided at the time the reservation is made. Identification and proof of age may be requested.

Campsite Reservations

Kumbrabow State Forest campsites are rustic. Up to six sites are designated for reservations, while the remaining sites are rented on a first-come, first-served basis. Campsite reservations are taken in advance for the Friday before Memorial Day through Labor Day. Outside the reservable dates, all sites become first-come, first-served basis. Only mail-in reservations will be accepted from February 15 through March 14. Site reservation application forms for the current year are available online to download. Mail-in reservations must be postmarked on or after February 15, or they will be returned. A maximum of three reservation forms per envelope will be accepted. Envelopes received with more than three reservation forms will be returned. Call-in requests during the period of February 15 –

March 15 will be sent blank reservations forms and instructions regarding return of completed forms and payments. Beginning March 15, phone reservations will be accepted during office hours. Mail-in, call-in and walk-in reservations will be accepted from April 1 through Labor Day Weekend.

A minimum of two (2) nights, up to a maximum of 14 nights, is required when making a reservation. If a reservation is canceled more than seven (7) days in advance, the deposit will be refunded with the exception of the handling fee plus the first night's rental. If canceled seven (7) days or less in advance, no refund will be given. Campsite reservations must be made at least two (2) days in advance, as available, and must be secured by payment of a deposit of the entire rental fee, plus a $5 handling charge.

Payment Methods — Campsites

Payments may be made by personal check, money order, cash or accepted credit cards (VISA, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover and Diners Club). All campsite reservations require payment in full. Campsite numbers will not be guaranteed; however, every effort will be made to assign the campsite requested. Only one camping unit per site is permitted. Reservations and further information may be obtained by writing or calling the park directly.

NOTE: All policies are subject to change. Any fees stated in this publication or posted may change without notice. Rate quotes are provided at the time of reservations and those rates confirmed by advance deposits.
